f @NavajoMuseum

HOURS OF OPERATION

Thursday - Saturday • 10:00AM to 4:00PM
And during Downtown Art Walks

The Museum of Navajo Art & Culture is the newest facility of the Farmington Museum System and celebrates the vibrant art, culture and history of the Diné (Navajo) people. The building was a gift from Bob and Mary Culpepper, along with an impressive collection of Navajo weavings. The Culpepper's textile collection, along with Farmington Museum's permanent collection will be used to exhibit, program, and educate our visitors to the wonderful indigenous cultures in our Four Corners Region.

ADMISSION

Suggested donation of $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for children. Some traveling exhibits have an additional admission fee.

CULTURAL CLASSES

Various classes are offered throughout the year sharing the skills and craftsmanship of the Diné such as traditional cooking classes, moccasin making, weaving, and pottery.

CULTURAL EVENTS

COYOTE STORIES

Fee: FREE

Come listen to the readings of twelve stories about Coyote (Maii') a mischievous, funny, and fearsome character who teaches the Diné people moral stories. These include Coyote being greedy, arrogant, unwise, and cunning. These stories help the Diné people learn from his mistakes and help remind us of the consequences of our actions.

Ages: Five (5) years and younger
