

FLY WOAW

For Girls & Women of All Ages

As part of Women Of Aviation Worldwide Week 2017, Del Sol Aviation, Calhoun Air Center and pilot Dianna Stanger are hosting a spectacular opportunity for girls and women of all ages to take an exciting FREE RIDE in a private airplane or helicopter during the Fly It Forward Challenge®!

Individuals and groups will learn about the history of women in aviation, find out what training is needed to fly an aircraft, and explore the many great career paths in aviation available for females.
